

Faculty of social and human sciences

Instructor: Ms. Dehamcha Samira

Module: English

3rd year LMD

Understanding Social Change:

1. Definition of Social Change:

Social change refers to a change of culture, behaviour, social institutions, and social structure across time.

➤ Examples of Social Change:

- Women's involvement in the workforce and in education.
- Use of technology and social media.
- Changes in family structures.

2. Causes of Social Change:

3. Types of Social Change:

Planned vs. Unplanned Change:

Faculty of social and human sciences

Instructor: Ms. Dehamcha Samira

Module: English

3rd year LMD

- Planned: reforming education.
- Unplanned: natural catastrophes that leads to migration.

Progressive vs. Regressive Change:

- Progressive: increase in human rights.
- Regressive: return to traditional roles.